

PAD COVID-19 SURVEY

Instructions to programmers:

Administer sections A-D and H. Administer one of sections E-G at random.

Instructions to surveyors:

Unless otherwise indicated, read the complete question as it is written and wait for the respondent to answer. If they are not understanding the question or unsure of how to respond, try to rephrase the question (while keeping the original meaning). If they are still unsure or are clearly misunderstanding, provide an example of the response (a few options in a list or scale).
